

Alicia Dominick (L) & Vivian Padilla (R)

Students at AHS

Arcadia Tavern has a beautiful shaded patio for guests who prefer to sit outside for their meal, complete with misting machines and umbrellas. The restaurant's rustic-style and casual environment makes guests feel right at home.

The Arcadia Tavern does a superb job of appealing to both kids and adults. In the back of the restaurant there's a kids corner filled with all kinds of cool stuff, including Xbox and Wii game systems, board games and a Rubik's Cube. For the over 21 crowd activities include goldfish racing on Thursday nights, shuttles to the Arizona Cardinals home games, Ladies' Night on Wednesdays and $5 Fridays.

ARCADIA TAVERN HERE TO STAY!

Located at 4801 E. Indian School, Arcadia Tavern comfortably sits in a friendly neighborhood filled with dedicated customers. "We are very fortunate and thankful," says Tracy Frazier, GM of this family friendly restaurant that opened for business in May. They feature an assortment of foods and drinks, and input from the neighborhood determines what appears on the menu. "Everything is from scratch," Tracy says, and since all items are homemade this includes a savory au jus that requires 36 hours to complete beforehand. They offer B.Y.O.P. (Build Your Own Pizza) and B.Y.O.B. (Build Your Own Burger) to satisfy every customer's unique taste, along with appetizers, Salads, Tavern (soon to be famous) Wings, Soups, Famous Tavern Pizza, Sandwich Favorites, Little Ones (kids menu), Signature Burgers, House Specialties, and Desserts.

You can blissfully stroll into the restaurant and chat with Arcadia Tavern's tremendously welcoming staff, and choose to sit either outside or inside on tables, picnic tables, or private booths. Inside the walls are lined with historic Someone finally got it right. Arcadia Tavern, on the corner of 48th St. & Indian School, has found the perfect ingredients for dining success: tasty food, affordable prices, great service, a family friendly atmosphere and many flat screen TVs (over 20). This is one place Arcadians can definitely call their own.

Arcadia photographs of athletes, students, events, buildings, and locations, as well as featuring over twenty hi-tech 50" plasma screen TV's broadcasting every sports channel. If you want to eat in your own home Arcadia Tavern offers a nifty online ordering service with extensive information and special request options. You can order anytime during business hours, and within 20 minutes you can come in and pick up your delicious catered-to-you meal.

If you look up towards the ceiling when sitting in one of the tavern's cozy booths, you will see a plethora of colorful sports jerseys. The Arcadia Tavern began to collect local sports star's old jerseys to be displayed in the restaurant for all to see. New sports jerseys are hung up every Tuesday, and if you have a jersey you'd like to share with the neighborhood, bring it right in.

If you're looking for a local family-friendly restaurant that has fabulous food, the Arcadia Tavern is the place to go! The folks at the tavern are very friendly, and really make you feel at home. The food is delicious, fresh, and served at a reasonable price. "We value customer's feedback," says Mr. Frazier, "You can get a quality meal at a great value." With its optimal location, fun staff, kid-oriented environment, and tasty food, the Arcadia Tavern is a one-of-a-kind jewel. "Come give us a try," says Frazier. "We guarantee you're coming back!"

Tracy Frazier, General Manager at Arcadia Tavern, shows off the coolest kids corner in all of Phoenix.